Prince George Engaged Encounter Community Newsletter

Vol. 5 No. 1
February 2007

Greetings from your new PG EE coordinators!

Firstly, we would like to thank previous coordinators, Rory and Maggie Daly, for their dedication to our EE community over the past several years, and for the great job they did in this leadership role. We are thrilled to be your new coordinators and look forward to serving our EE community. We experienced our Engaged Encounter weekend in 2001. Needless to say, the profound impact of the experience inspired us to become more involved. We're already excited about the idea of our two sons (Mitchell, 3 and Matthew, 7 months) having the opportunity to experience an EE weekend of their own. As you can see, we're committed!

Fall Reunion

Thanks to all who came out to our AGM and Social this past September. It was great to see familiar faces and get to know some of our EE newlyweds better. Wedding stories and photos were shared, and a good time was had by all. Stay tuned for information on our next EE social, we'd love to see you there!

Marriage Enrichment Day

Sandra Prather led a Marriage Enrichment workshop for our community this past November. It was a wonderful opportunity for married couples to deepen their relationship and understanding of the sacrament we live each day! Thanks to Rory and Maggie Daly for organizing, and thanks also to the Diocese of PG for helping to host this successful event.

Share Your Couple Love

There are lots of different ways you can spread your couple love through Engaged Encounter. Join us in helping to provide these enriching weekends for engaged couples and experience the true enrichment in your own marriage! As many of us already know, volunteering for Engaged Encounter gives you a rare opportunity to both share and renew your marriage at the same time.

Dialog Question: Try it at Home!

Spend a few minutes alone with your spouse. Try taking 10 minutes to write a letter to each other in response to the following dialogue question, then take 10 minutes to exchange, read and discuss each other's letters:

Matthew 5: 14, 15: You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all the house.

“How will I be a “light of the world” to my spouse, family, friends and community in the coming days and weeks? How will we as a couple do the same?”

Consider the Following Opportunities for Involvement

- Presenting couples: share your marriage experience to the engaged couples on the weekend
- Host couples: greet all of our engaged couples and help them get settled in
- Prayer teams: pray for the all the engaged couples, presenting teams and religious on the weekend
- Promotional team: help promote our weekends to the greater community, making great use of our trifold
- Social teams: help coordinate and organize social events for our EE community
- ...and more. These are just an example. We also have couples managing our newsletter, finances, supplies, and registration. If you have a skill, we can put it to use to benefit the Engaged Encounter Ministry.

Please contact Ross & Anita Lennox at 962-5069; we'll be waiting for your call!
